WHERE WOULD YOU SEND SOMEONE FOR ONE PERFECT DAY?

HOW IT WORKS

1. Read it like a day, first light to lights out.
2. Point your camera at any code for the whole list.
3. Heart the stops you want. They wait in Saved.
4. Go. Then tell us if you'd order it again.

FREE. YOUR CAMERA DOES IT.

La Luz Mexican Grill

WORTH THE ALARM

Start before you're hungry. At La Luz the weekday breakfast burrito is packed with potato, eggs and cheese, and the green chile is already inside. Pick bacon, chorizo, steak or veggie. Then go find the sun.

ASK FOR

WEEKDAY BREAKFAST BURRITO

Potato, eggs, cheese and green chile.

La Piadina

SOMETHING YOU CAN HOLD

By late morning you want lunch in one hand. The Emiliano is an Italian flatbread folded around prosciutto crudo, fresh mozzarella, tomato and arugula, with balsamic drawn across the top. Eat it standing up.

ASK FOR

EMILIANO

Prosciutto crudo, mozzarella, tomato, arugula.

SAY IT AT THE TABLE

FOUR TRUE THINGS ABOUT THIS TOWN.

Before it was a burger town, this was a lamb town. By 1901, some 400,000 were fed here in a winter.

The saloons closed in 1896. The town voted them back in 1969. That is 73 dry years.

Harper Goff, who helped design Disneyland's Main Street, grew up here. He said two of its buildings were copied from ours.

The trolley on Mountain Avenue was built in 1919. Volunteers put it back on the rails, and it still runs on summer weekends.
